The purpose of the LDS program is to provide low-interest rate loans to eligible individuals from disadvantaged backgrounds that are enrolled full-time in good standing at an eligible health professions school.

Eligibility:

An individual from a disadvantaged background is defined by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services as someone who:

- Comes from an environment that has inhibited the individual from obtaining the knowledge, skill and abilities required to enroll in and graduate from a health professions school; or
- Comes from a family with an annual income below a level based on low-income guidelines according to family size published by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, adjusted annually for changes in the Consumer Price Index, and adjusted by the Secretary of Health and Human Services for use in health professions and nursing programs.

Eligible students must also be:

- A citizen, national or a lawful permanent resident of the United States or the District of Columbia, the Commonwealths of Puerto Rico or the Marianas Islands, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the American Samoa, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands and the Federated State of Micronesia.

Application: To apply for the LDS loan the student needs to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid. For consideration, the parental data must be included on the FAFSA regardless of dependency status. Students must also submit copies of both their and their parents Federal Tax returns. Application submission priority date: October 1, 2021.

Amount: Awards up to $15,000 per academic year, based on the availability of funds.

Interest rate: 5% fixed interest. Interest does not accrue during periods of grace or deferment.
The following documents are required to apply for and receive the LDS loan. They must be submitted by October 1, 2021 to receive consideration for the Loans for Disadvantaged Student program.
