Dear SLU Students:

The Higher Learning Commission (HLC) is the institutional accrediting body that comprehensively evaluates Saint Louis University; SLU has been continuously accredited by the HLC since 1916. SLU is going through its 10-year comprehensive re-accreditation process this year. Your comments about your experiences at SLU are very important to the HLC as part of this process; accordingly, the HLC seeks you input via the short (5 min) survey linked below. A summary of your input will be provided to SLU and the team of representatives from the HLC who will be visiting SLU on November 15-16.

The answers you give on this survey are anonymous. Unless you include identifying information in your comments, neither the HLC nor SLU will have access to your identity. Your participation is completely voluntary. Note that you will also have opportunities for giving feedback directly to the HLC review team when they are on campus in November.

The survey will be open through September 16. If you have any related questions, please contact studentsurvey@hlcommission.org.

Sincerely,

Mike Lewis, Ph.D.
