

Tony Vicini

anthony.vicini@slu.edu

ADVISOR/MENTOR: Dr. Sabick
PROGRAM START: Fall 2015

BIOGRAPHY

Tony graduated from Case Western Reserve with a BS in biomedical engineering and from Wright State University with a MS in the same. He is currently working on a PhD. Hobbies include woodwork, coding, and D&D.

RESEARCH

Current research interests include development of a non-invasive way to track shoulder motion. Which is currently not accurate for arm positions like those seen in baseball pitching.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY
—
PARKS COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING,
AVIATION AND TECHNOLOGY

