Notes:

1 Substitutions may be made with approval of the program director based on criteria of a SLU-equivalent academic substance and of a 50 percent Asian content to the course. To insure some multidisciplinary breadth, students are encouraged to take their elective credits in three of the six different disciplines included above (English, language, international business, history, political science and theology).

Capstone

POLS 3930 Asian Studies Capstone

Note: With the Director’s permission, students may substitute, for the capstone requirement, an independent study under an Asian Studies faculty member that involves a major writing project. In semesters when the capstone is not offered, students may substitute, with the Director’s permission, a 4000-level Asian-content seminar in any of the six host disciplines.
