About Saint Louis University: Founded in 1818, Saint Louis University is one of the nation’s oldest and most prestigious Catholic institutions. Rooted in Jesuit values and its pioneering history as the first university west of the Mississippi River, SLU offers more than 13,500 students a rigorous, transformative education of the whole person. SLU's service-focused mission is at the core of the University’s diverse community of scholars, which challenges and prepares students to make the world a better, more just place.

About the Division of Student Development: The Division of Student Development is driven by the mission to provide programs, services, and experiences that help students develop as leaders. Our goal is to help shape students into successful graduates who are holistically formed, critically reflective, and socially and personally responsible. The Division is comprised of fourteen departments and employs over 200 professional staff who support both graduate and undergraduate students and initiatives at the University.

Divisional Statement on Diversity: In support of Saint Louis University's Jesuit mission, the Division of Student Development is committed to maintaining an environment of mutual respect and dignity for people of all backgrounds and cultures. Our mission is to encourage and support a thriving and diverse community among our staff and students. We honor the differences in our community, whether it be age, ability, race, religion, gender identity and expression, sexual orientation, or socio-economic background and prepare our students to thrive in a multicultural, diverse society. Our efforts are grounded in cultivating awareness, inclusion, and engagement through intentional experiences, events, and programs that demonstrate our commitment to excellence.

The Division of Student Development employs over 40 graduate assistants who work closely alongside administrative staff to fulfill the mission of the University. The Division strongly believes in supporting the education of aspiring higher education professionals, and our staff is committed to providing meaningful, immersive learning opportunities for graduate students. We offer mentoring, supervision, and holistic support in a cohort-based model, aligned with Catholic, Jesuit teaching.
